

Setback for LBJ on His Aid Program

By ROBERT T. GRAY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration has suffered a Senate setback on its military assistance program and is showing heightened concern over other parts of President Johnson's 1967 foreign aid bill.

The Senate refused Tuesday to allow the Defense Department to continue guaranteeing repayment of loans made to underdeveloped countries for purchases of U.S. arms.

The key vote was 46 to 45, upholding the Foreign Relations Committee recommendation for abolition of the guarantee plan. The administration opposes the proposed elimination.

During Senate debate, administration representatives met with nearly 20 senators to appeal for support in restoring sharp cuts the committee made in other areas of foreign aid.

A final vote on the over-all measure is not expected until at least late this week.

The committee headed by Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., cut more than $700 million from the $3.4 billion requested by Johnson.

The bill it sent to the floor also would strip the President of authority to add countries, without congressional approval, to the list of those receiving U.S. aid.

The committee also refused to approve the two-year authorization the President requested and struck out of his bill major policy declarations Johnson had offered as a new look in foreign aid.

Fulbright and several other members of the Foreign Relations Committee are severe critics of Johnson's Vietnam policies and said the war was a factor in their handling of the President's bill.

Cong Heroine Special Guest of Cubans

HAVANA (AP) — One of Cuba's publicized guests is a 17-year-old Viet Cong heroine who claims to have killed 25 American soldiers in less than two years of guerrilla fighting.

Ngo Thi Tuyet, holder of the title "valiant combatant, annihilator of Yankees," is the latest Communist visitor to be glorified by the Cuban government as part of its year-long solidarity campaign with the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong. In Cuba, this is the "year of heroic Vietnam."

Thi Tuyet arrived in Havana in July with dozens of other Vietnamese to attend the Organization of Latin American Solidarity conference at which she was an honorary delegate.

In an interview with the Cuban Communist organ Granma she told this story:

She joined the Viet Cong when she was 11, working first in the underground and becoming a guerrilla fighting in 1965 when "the Yankees sent troops" near her home in the vicinity of Chu Lal.

"First I lost my father, she said. "They killed him. Later they killed my mother, too. There was no alternative but to fight the enemy to avenge my parents and my people."

Ex-Candidate for Gov. Dies

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Winston Peabody Wilson, 87, of Little Rock, an unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1932, died here Tuesday.

Wilson finished sixth in a seven-man Democratic primary for governor in 1932. He ran, again unsuccessfully, against U.S. Rep. David D. Terry in 1934.

70 Troopers to Guard Rights Group

By ILL NEKIRK
Associated Press Writer
HOLDEN, La. (AP) — Seventy additional state troopers were ordered in today to protect a column of Negro civil rights marchers passing through Klux Klan territory.

Thomas Burbank, superintendent of state police, increased the detachment to 124 men after a brief flare of violence Tuesday in which 15 whites surged past officers to get at the 20 marchers.

No one was seriously hurt in the melee, which took place in this small town. Two white men were arrested.

"We broke it up as soon as it started," said State Police Capt. William Jourdan.

A. Z. Young, president of the Bogalusa Civic and Voters League, said the marchers also would be reinforced by Negroes driving in from Bogalusa.

The league is sponsoring the march, which left Bogalusa seven days ago on a 105-mile trek to Baton Rouge, the state capital, to dramatize protests against alleged job discrimination in Bogalusa.

With Baton Rouge just 30 miles away, Young said the march would be paced to arrive there Saturday with a rally to be held Sunday on the steps of the capitol.

After the melee in Holden, the marchers traveled back to nearby Albany in trucks to spend the night in Negro homes.

Young said Maj. Tom Bradley, in charge of the detachment of state police, told him as they approached Holden that he "didn't think we had adequate protection."

Negro leaders "talked about it and decided to go ahead," said Young.

The police protective force included 54 officers—eight of them mounted on horses, with carbines ready in their saddle scabbards.

The Negroes, walking in column of twos, found the street lined with whites along both sides as they moved into Holden.

Sheriff Taft Faust said the fighting was triggered when a white youth struck a marcher with his fist.

Gold Smuggling Ring Finances China Riots

LONDON (AP) — Scotland Yard police believe they are on the trail of an international gold smuggling ring financing Chinese Communist terrorism and rioting in Hong Kong, police sources said today.

Submachine guns, rifles, revolvers, ammunition and molds for counterfeit coins were uncovered in raids Tuesday on a rambling Bedfordshire farmhouse and a bakery shop in Middlesex.

Sources said the detention of several British businessmen who make regular trips abroad is planned. Messages were dispatched to Interpol and other police forces in continental Europe and in the Far East.

Former British speedway ace Francis "Squire" Waterman, 45, and his fiancée, Avril Preston, 38, were charged Tuesday with attempted illegal exportation of gold. Customs officers stripped Waterman's car as it was about to be taken aboard a French ferry at Newhaven, England. They found $28,000 in gold bars.

British intelligence reports show that recent troubles and riots in the British colony of Hong Kong have doubled the price of gold on the black market. The bullion is said to be urgently needed to help finance the Communist-led rioting against British colonial authority and to supply arms and ammunition.

Communist attempts to cripple British authority have so far been frustrated. More than 3,000 persons have been arrested on charges of terrorism and rioting, and Hong Kong police have smashed dozens of Communist headquarters and hideouts, seizing large stores of weapons and explosives.

Police raided the red-brick country house at Bedfordshire at dawn Tuesday. Bullets and gun bores of arms found there were matched with shells known to have been used in some of England's biggest armed gold thefts.

Officers collected dies for counterfeiting and other forgery equipment from the house and outbuildings. Half an ounce of gold and what appeared to be traces of gold were found in a shed.

No Hurry to Hand Over Tshombe

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
ALGIERS (AP) — The Algerian and Congolese governments seem to be having second thoughts about extraditing Moise Tshombe to the Congo to face the death penalty.

Algeria's Col. Houari Boumedienne is in no hurry to hand Tshombe over to Congo President Joseph D. Mobutu—despite the Algerian Supreme Court's July 21 decision recommending extradition.

Tshombe, 47, former Katanga separatist leader, and former premier of the Congo, was kidnapped on a flight over the Mediterranean and brought to Algeria June 30. He had been convicted in absentia of treason and conspiracy against the Mobutu regime.

Algerian officials and the government-controlled press have repeatedly hinted that the Boumedienne government may set up an international revolutionary tribunal to try Tshombe in Algeria for "crimes against Africa."

These hints imply that Algeria does not regard the Mobutu regime as sufficiently revolutionary to be trusted to deal with Tshombe in true revolutionary fashion.

Once Tshombe is extradited, Algeria would no longer have any control over what happens to him. A free pardon pronounced following his extradition would be regarded as a grave offense to Algeria's revolutionary dignity—a risk President Boumedienne may not be willing to take.

Diplomatic sources said Mobutu has refused to make the

10,000 Are Evacuated in Fairbanks

By WARD SIMS
FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — Helicopters and river boats, moving past dangling power lines, carried 10,000 Alaskans to safety from this city nine feet deep in floodwater, as the danger of fire posed a new element of disaster today.

Three persons were known dead in the flood that Gov. Walter J. Hickel said would have greater impact on the state than the Good Friday earthquake of March 1964. "Every piece of property has been touched," he said.

Firefighters, blocked by deep and swift running water, watched helplessly as six buildings burned in the downtown area Tuesday. Mayor H.A. "Red" Boucher warned: "If anything major breaks out we'd need a fireboat to fight it and Fairbanks doesn't have a fireboat."

Weather forecasters predicted more rain late today as the Chena River, which loops through this city of 30,000, ran up to nine feet deep in the heart of the downtown business district, spilling the waters that it accumulated during four days of rain without letup.

Even if there was no more rain, one forecaster said, it would take days for the river just to return to the flood level.

Planes brought rations, medicine, typhoid serum for 40,000 people, and federal disaster and rescue personnel including doctors, nurses and Red Cross workers. The Army set up water purification units and handed out field rations to refugees.

The mayor, who estimated total damage starting at $150 to $200 million, said about 10,000 people were moved to evacuation centers by the Alaska National Guard, Army and civilian helicopter and boats manned by civilian, National Guardsmen and police.

Hickel said mass evacuation of the city was being considered, "because there will be no way to feed or house all of the residents" if they remain where they are.

But immediate mass evacuation was thought impossible because all roads and railroads were blocked by the flood. Only the Fairbanks International Airport remained open for emergency commercial and military flights.

The only telephone communication with the city was to a heavily sandbagged Alaska communications system building, where disaster headquarters were set up.

Boucher estimated that 75 percent of the business establishments suffered major damage. Only a few homes were spared heavy damage, and some were reported crumbling from the pressure of the surging floodwaters.

"It's terrible! It's terrible!" Hickel kept repeating after a tour of the downtown area with the mayor late Tuesday. "I can't believe it! I just can't believe it!" Boucher added.

political concessions which might have persuaded Algeria to extradite Tshombe without delay.

Such concessions reportedly included a Congolese break with Israel, a disengagement from U.S. influence and an amnesty for Congolese leftist leaders in exile, including Antoine Gizenga, head of the short-lived Congolese People's Republic in Stanleyville, now Kisangani.

Mobutu's refusal was apparently delivered to the Algerians late in July. Since then, the attitude of both governments has undergone a noticeable change.

Diplomatic sources said Mobutu now recognizes that Tshombe's kidnapping was a political mistake.

In his first reaction to Tshombe's capture, Mobutu believed the former premier would be handed over to him within hours. He told diplomats he intended to have Tshombe executed quickly and without further trial—but not in public.

Need for Skill Will Increase

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Lt. Gov. Maurice Britt said Tuesday that the need for skilled workers in the United States would increase in the future, and not decrease as some people might think.

Britt made the statement to about 125 young summer employees of the federal government in a speech at the Federal Building at Little Rock.

"Government economists are predicting that by 1975 the total number of jobs will increase by 18 per cent," Britt said. "That is an increase of almost one-fifth in our present employment opportunities."

Jim Haynes, computer designer for General Electric Co., was an interesting guest speaker Tuesday before Hope Kiwanis Club. He outlined some of the amazing work that an electrical computer accomplishes.

These machines, sometimes referred to as "artificial intelligence," are gaining in popularity throughout business and industry and are being produced currently at about one thousand machines per month for varied use throughout the U.S.

Mr. Haynes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haynes of Hope, a graduate of the electrical engineering school of the University of Arkansas, and is currently stationed with General Electrical Computer Division, Phoenix, Arizona.

Lange found the keys to Peterson's 1957 station wagon and drove to Shell Lake four miles away to call police.

Dr. Lambert said all the victims had been shot with a .22-caliber gun. Police found five spent cartridges on the farm property.

Mrs. Peterson and her 1-year-old son were found dead in the front yard. "The mother and infant must have jumped through a window which we found ajar," the coroner said.

The children slain were: Jean, 17, Mary, 13, Dorothy, 11, Pearl, 9, William, 5, Collin, 2, and Larry 1.

Walker Told to Exhaust All Remedies

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state attorney general's office asked Tuesday that James Dean Walker be made to exhaust his remedies in state courts and that a motion to reinstate his case be denied.

Walker is serving a life sentence for the slaying of a North Little Rock patrolman. Walker's petition for a writ of habeas corpus has been dismissed but Federal Judge J. Smith Henley conditionally reinstated the petition.

Judge Henley said he would consider a motion to vacate his order if the Circuit Court accepted the petition and set a date for a hearing.

Walker, 26, of Reno, Nev., was convicted of the 1963 slaying of patrolman Jerrell P. Vaughan. Walker's attorneys have asked Henley to take jurisdiction of the case and grant a hearing for a new trial.

Coco Chanel's Age Is Still a Mystery

By LUCIE NOEL
AP Fashion Writer
PARIS (AP) — Coco Chanel, the grande mademoiselle of Paris fashions, is having a birthday Saturday. Whether she is about to become 84, 85 or 86 is shrouded in feminine mystery—she likes to think of herself "up in the 70s."

Whatever her age, her energy and dynamism still mark the fabulous world of high fashion.

She has twice conquered the fashion world and still holds her own. A Chanel suit is a status symbol. Women have been known to keep them for 30 years and update them by maybe shortening the skirt, though Chanel has never been a champion of the miniskirt—she finds it grotesque.

Of her suits her enemies like to say: "It's still the same old thing." But she never has departed from the style she herself created—the luxury of ease and comfort, which spelled her initial approach to fashion.

She changes her colors and fabrics, introduces new detailing, sponsors wonderful tweeds, and launches new jewelry and hairdos. Basically her technique is her own.

Her influence was so great on the fashion world that when in 1954 she returned to the scene, other designers had undergone subconscious influence and designed clothes "a la Chanel." when her first collection appeared it was a nostalgic remembrance of things past, for she had picked up where she had left off 16 years before. It took her a couple of seasons to get back into stride, but almost from the first, clients began to order wardrobes.

Today there's nothing nostalgic about her designing. Creating fashion in her own way is her life. She cannot remain idle. Like an actor, she cannot leave the stage and has never given a farewell performance. "C'est plus fort qu'elle — she can't help it," say her workers who adore "Mademoiselle" regardless of the way she is inclined to scotch an entire group of dresses if she finds an imperfection. She has been known to throw out as many as 25 models at the last moment because they did not live up to her expectations. At times, she says: "This is the last collection I'll design." It only means she's tired, and on she goes.

Opera Wants to Play in Newport, R.I.

By ART HATTON JR.
NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The Metropolitan Opera Company of New York wants to make Newport its summer home. Whether it does will depend a great deal on the next 10 days.

Because for all its aesthetic value, the decision on whether to bring the Met to Newport in future years will be made on a very practical basis—the support the opera receives between Thursday and Aug. 26.

The opera company was first brought to Newport last summer by George Wein, producer of the jazz and folk festivals. It stayed for a week and the event left much to be desired financially.

This year things are different. The Met is financing and producing its own show and has hired Wein, his technical staff and Festival Field.

The state has pledged $50,000 and a civic group headed by Mrs. Claiborne Pell, wife of the U.S. senator, has raised another $75,000 to help underwrite this year's festival.

Reginald Allen, a special assistant to Met General Manager Rudolf Bing, says an additional $200,000 in gate receipts will be needed to make the 10-day stay a financial success. This will require an average attendance of 7,000 for each of the seven evening concerts to be staged at Festival Field, according to Allen.

Blush People

Most naturally fair-haired people have fair, thin skin. St. the sudden rush of blood that produces a blush is more noticeable in blondes, whose blood vessels are nearer to the skin surface. You can't rinse off a blush of embarrassment, but you can rid a fair skin of pore-clogging grime and make-up with a face cream that takes it all off with plain water. The rinse off cold cream is for both oily and dry skin.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Television is a confusing business. Lucille Ball's current deal with CBS involves $12 million for her season's output; Dean Martin's production company recently concluded a three-year $34-million contract; Johnny Carson is reputedly receiving more than $1 million a year, but that is not profit to the stars—not by a long shot.

The Walt Disney Studios, in 13 years of weekly television, annually sinks between $500,000 and $1 million more into its programs than it receives for the broadcasts. This would seem a one-way street to fiscal disaster but it, too, is not what it seems. Lucy and Dean produce their shows with most of their money; Carson has some of his staff to pay. And Disney figures its television loss as an advertising profit.

"Television is a great avenue for us to enter the family when it is at home," explained the studio's production head, William G. Anderson. "It builds our image—and then there is that end-plug on each show that is part of our deal."

The end-plug is the portion of each show when the audience is told about the excitements of the Disneyland amusement park or the charms of the latest Disney film soon to play in their neighborhood theater. The studio even has made whole programs a plug by taking viewers on a trip through Disneyland.

Walt Disney, who served as host on his television series from its beginnings on ABC, died last December. But about the only difference next season's viewers will notice is that the familiar, gentle-voiced creator of Mickey Mouse will not introduce each show.

Anderson, production vice president who started with Disney almost three decades ago, said the style and treatment would continue unchanged—assorted cartoons, nature subjects and dramatic series, some new, some from the studio vaults, some reruns from other years.

"We found that if a show impressed itself on public's mind, we could bring it back again and again," Anderson said. "Snow White" is on its fifth time around as a theatrical film—and it is making more money than it did on its first release. We believe that you can reissue a theatrical film like that successfully every seven years. But in television, you can return it in five years as we did with "Davy Crockett" and hit a new audience of children who have grown up to it."

The nature and cartoon shows take longest to make—over a year—but like most other Disney products, have more than one use.

"We can edit them down from television size and make theatrical short features of them," Anderson explained. "The two- and three-part action programs can be turned into theatrical films and shown abroad."

Television may not directly make money for Disney, but it has sometimes helped in other areas.

"We started to develop the 'Shaggy Dog' at ABC as a family television series," Anderson recalled. "But ABC said no, it wanted a Western. Walt was upset about it, and changed it into a theatrical film by combining the three or four programs we'd made. It turned into a hit and made a bucket of money for us."

The studio has in its vaults at least 40 films, including a number of family classics, which have never been released for television use, one of the few such untapped treasure troves left.

"Somebody is always talking to us about getting them," Anderson said. "But it has never seemed practical to let them go—not even the ones in black and white like 'The Absent-Minded Professor'—when there is even more to be made by reissuing them for theater use."

This season Disney's Sunday NBC hour probably will consist of 25 new—to television, that is—shows and 13 repeats of those shows with reruns of programs from past seasons filling out the year.

An elopement calls for formal announcements of the wedding.

Opening lead—♥ K

Parkinson's first law of bridge is that if you give your partner a chance to make a mistake he is likely to make it. It corresponds roughly to the old Army law that anything that can foul up is likely to do so.

West opened the king of hearts against South's three diamond contract. Dummy's ace held the trick with East dropping the deuce.

South played his ace and king of diamonds and led a low club to dummy's seven and East's jack.

East was a good player and was pretty sure that he could call every distribution and every face card. West needed the queen of hearts, ace of spades and king of clubs for his opening bid and it looked like a certainty that South's original distribution was 6-3-3-1.

East took his queen of trumps. West played the five of hearts and dummy a low spade. Then East led the eight of spades. West won with the ace and returned a spade to dummy's king. The five of clubs was led from dummy. East played the six and West won with the king. Then West went into one of those long trances that are so common among bridge players of all sorts and finally laid down his queen of hearts. South ruffed and claimed the rest of the tricks.

East was bitter, justifiably, because West's play was terrible but East has to share some of the responsibility under the terms of Parkinson's first law.

East knew where the king of clubs was and East was certain that South did hold another spade. East should have played his queen of clubs. Of course West might have overtaken with the king and led the heart but the chances are that West would have let East hold the trick.

♥+CARD Sense♦♦

Q—The bidding has been:
West North East South
1 ♠ 1 ♥ Dble 2 ♣
Pass 3 ♣ Pass 2 N.T.
You, South, hold:
♠ K 9 ♥ A J 5 4 ♦ 4 3 2 ♣ K 10 7 6
What do you do now?
A—Bid three hearts. Your hand is worth another bid and this one is all-purpose. It gives your partner a chance to go to four hearts in the unlikely event that he holds four of them. It tells him you can stop hearts if he is afraid of that.

ACCUSED BY "PARTY GIRL"

Dear Helen: A few weeks ago at a small party there was a girl I knew it wasn't safe to dilly-dally around with, so I avoided her. Everybody was drinking and liquor makes her very friendly. Now she is accusing me of being the father of her expected child. How can I prove I'm not? —HELPI

Dear Help: If you avoided this girl before the party she'll have a hard time pinning fatherhood on you—especially if you can prove she's a "dilly" who dandles.—H.

Dear Helen: We plan to give a surprise anniversary party for our parents soon. One of our sisters has a tendency to bring her three children to these family affairs, then she and her husband take off, leaving the kids who aren't exactly easy to manage, especially at a party.

How can we get it across that the party includes grandchildren, but only if accompanied, throughout, by their parents? —THE OTHERS

Dear Others: Why don't you say so? Seems to me such frankness is long overdue in your family.—H.

Dear Helen: Every night this wonderful husband of mine walks into our bedroom and automatically turns on TV or the radio—loud.

Now once in a while I'd like a little quiet with five kids. If I should take a nap in another room, he's offended. He seems to think the blare of "entertainment" is essential to a happy home.

I love the handsome guy, but what do other gals do when they get noise-happy? —PERPLEXED

Dear Per: Tell your husband you're jealous of the "outsiders" he invites into your bedroom, when you have so little time with him. If this doesn't work, turn down the volume so that it doesn't jar your ears, and be glad he's there to face the music with you.

Dear Helen: I wonder why short-shorts, or even a bikini on a girl doesn't cause the eye-popping stares that a mini-skirt does? —AMERICAN SEEN

Dear A.S.: Because mini-skirts are new, and they show up where bikinis usually don't —on Main Street. Also, raised hems suggest more than they reveal.—H.

Dear Helen: I have a friend I went to school with a few years ago. Since her mother died, she is living with her sister, and according to the will neither can marry until the sister reaches 30, or they'll lose their inheritance.

The sister hates me and won't let me come near the house. She is now 28, and the girl I like is 21. We can only see each other at the library. When I call the sister usually cuts us off.

I can wait for marriage, if that's the way they want it, but I'd like to see my girl, and she'd like to see me. How? —GERRY

Dear Gerry: Your girl is 21, therefore free of guardianship. She may live where she pleases, and go where she pleases, and if she's not abnormally browbeaten, she will.

I can understand the 28 year-old sister's fear of losing her money—though it's hard to understand a will that makes this kind of restriction. Try to get it across that you'll wait two years—but ONLY if she stops dogging you.—H.

Both Fighters Believe They'll Win

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Both lightweight champion Carlos Ortiz and challenger Ismael Laguna predict knockout victories tonight. If either comes through with a kayo jolt it could make for the best kind of finish to the widely criticized title fight at Shea Stadium.

This is the fight that Police Commissioner Howard Leary said New York could do without this riot-trouble summer. Leary also had in mind the three missile-throwing riots within a 21-months span at Madison Square Garden following three decisions against main eventers of Puerto Rican descent.

The television 15-rounder is a third and rubber bout between Ortiz, a 30-year-old Puerto Rican-born New Yorker, and Laguna, the 24-year-old "Tiger" of Panama.

Laguna dethroned Ortiz in Panama on April 10, 1965, and then was beaten by Ortiz in a return at San Juan, Puerto Rico, seven months later.

Not a single knockdown was scored by either in the 30 rounds. And neither ever has been stopped.

The fight is rated even in the betting—6-5 and take your pick.

Still, Laguna, a skinny 5-foot-9 package of punching fury, boasts "I'm going to knock him out. He's getting old and I'm ready to be taken. I'm going to put the pressure on him and knock him out, maybe in the 10th or 11th round."

"Great, let him put on the heat," retorted Ortiz. "I'll stretch him out. I know what he can do now and I'm gonna blast

Chicago in Split, Bosox Beat Detroit

Dave Morehead's most recent complete game shutout wasn't as brilliant as the one that preceded it, but it may be more important. The first one meant a place in the Little Red Book. The latest may have meant his career.

Morehead's six-hitter in Boston's 4-0 victory over Detroit Tuesday night may have marked the end of the trail in his comeback attempt from an arm problem that struck just when he seemed on the way to greatness.

The last complete-game shutout Morehead pitched was a no-hitter against Detroit on Sept. 16, 1965. But in April of 1966, he came up with a sore arm that held him down to 12 appearances and a 1-2 record.

When no improvement showed over the spring he was sent to Toronto where he compiled an 11-5 record before being recalled recently. He pitched erratically in his first few appearances until striking it rich against his old friends, the Tigers.

In other American League games Tuesday, Chicago split with Kansas City, winning 4-2 and losing by the same score, Minnesota shut out California 4-0, Baltimore outlasted New York 11-10 in 13 innings and Cleveland blanked Washington 3-0.

In the National League, St. Louis beat Chicago 6-4, Houston edged Los Angeles 2-1 in 12 innings, San Francisco took Atlanta 4-1, Cincinnati nudged Pittsburgh 2-1 and Philadelphia took two from New York 3-2 in 12 innings and 7-5.

"I don't think anyone can pitch any better than Dave pitched tonight," said catcher Elston Howard, who has caught some pretty fair pitchers in his time. "He was really hitting the glove and he had real good stuff all the way."

Willie Horton, struck out twice by Morehead, joined in the accolade, saying, "He used to throw harder, but had more trouble picking up his ball tonight."

The Red Sox didn't do much hitting off Detroit pitching either, getting only five hits, but three of them were homers by Reggie Smith, George Scott and Carl Yastrzemski.

Chicago's split with the Athletics knocked the White Sox another half-game down the ladder in the American League pennant race. They now trail Minnesota by 1½ games.

Rocky Colavito's three run homer provided the Chicago victory in the opener, but Rick Monday came back with a three-run blast that made the difference in the finale.

Jim Perry turned in a six-hit shutout for the Twins who have now won six in a row. Tony Oliva had three hits and drove in a run and Harmon Killebrew and Jerry Zimmerman each drove in runs with singles.

The slugfest at Yankee Stadium was decided by a balk as Fritz Peterson committed the miscue in the 13th, sending Andy Etchebarren home from third. Bill Robinson, Joe Pepitone and Horace Clarke hit homers for the Yanks.

Stan Williams stopped the Senators on four hits and Max Alvis hit a two-run homer for the Indians.

Travelers in Shut Out of Braves

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Austin's George Stone struck out nine and didn't walk a man as the Braves shutout the Arkansas Travelers 5-0 in a Texas League game Tuesday night.

The Braves broke the scoreless tie in the fifth when George Kopeck hit his seventh homer of the season. The Braves put the game out of reach in the sixth, scoring four runs on two walks, two doubles and a triple by Derrell Griffith.

The Travs came close to scoring in the fifth with the benefit of two Austin errors but Stone shut the door.

Amarillo, the Texas League leaders, scored four runs in the eighth inning and blasted Dallas-Fort Worth 8-3 at Amarillo. The Spurs were down 4-0 after five innings.

Albuquerque and El Paso battled to a 2-2 tie at El Paso in what was to have been the first game of a doubleheader. The game, which was scheduled for seven innings, went two extra innings before being called because of rain. The second game was postponed.

Javier Wants to Play in Japan Too

By CHARLIE BAROUH
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. LOUIS (AP) — It's about that time of year when the sports writers ask the league leaders who they want to play in the other league. So the sports writers asked the St. Louis Cardinals who they want to play.

"Japan," Juvliar Javier said. "I don't care who we play — anybody, — as long as we play." Javier brought the Cardinals one step closer to Japan, or anybody, with a triple in the sixth inning that pushed the Cardinals past the Chicago Cubs 6-4 Tuesday night.

"El Birdos never lose on payday," Javier laughed after the game, as clubhouse man Butch Yatkeman passed out the paychecks.

"You mean we get paid for this?" center fielder Curt Flood asked.

It was the second night in a row the Cardinals came back to beat Chicago. And it was the fifth victory in a row for the red hot Birds.

Orlando Cepeda is so relaxed he doesn't know how far in front the Cardinals are.

They are 10½ ahead of Atlanta and Cincinnati.

"I don't know how many games we have to win, how many games we have to play, and I don't know who's behind us. All I know," Cepeda said, "is that we're playing the best ball we've played all year right now."

"And I'll think about who we want to play in the American League when we clinch the pennant," he added.

Fleckman Is Sharing the Spotlight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Marty Fleckman, the low amateur in last June's U.S. Open Golf Championship, qualified Tuesday for the National Amateur Golf Championship, but shared the headlines with John Farquhar and several teen-agers.

Fleckman, a 23-year-old from Port Arthur, Tex., who led the U.S. Open at the halfway 36-hole mark, qualified at Cleveland, Ohio, with a two-under-par 72-72 — 144 at the Kirtland Country Club.

This was eight strokes back of the eight-under-par 68-68 — 136 Farquhar, of Amarillo, Tex., posted at Odessa, Tex., to lead the two-day sectional qualifying around the country for the National at Colorado Springs, Colo. Au 30-Sept. 2.

Ron Cerrudo of San Francisco qualified at Rochester, N.Y. with a 137 to tie John Bohmann of Seguin, Tex., for the second lowest score in the two-day sectionals. Bohmann got his 137 for 36 holes Monday.

Don Hawken of Novato, Calif., Jim Simons of Butler, Pa., and Skip Koprivica of Butte, Mont., were the teen-agers who did well as did Ray Leach, Novato, and Joey Dills, Muskogee, Okla.

Hawken, 17, led the Northern California sectional at San Francisco with a 70-73 — 143. Simons, also 17, qualified at Pittsburgh with a 71-74 — 145. Koprivica, 1, shot a 68-73 — 141 at the Butte Country Club.

Ray Leach, another 17-year-old, qualified with a 145 at San Francisco. Dills, who won't be 16 until November, also got a 145 at Oklahoma City.

St. Louis Defeats the Cubs 6-4

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Bruce Von Hoff thought all day about making his first major league start and now that it's over National League batters have something to think about.

"I was told this noon by Speck Richardson (Houston general manager) that I was going to pitch," said the 23-year-old right hander who was called up from Amarillo of the Texas League Monday. "I thought about it all day."

After eight innings of Tuesday night's game, the Los Angeles Dodgers undoubtedly had some thoughts about Von Hoff — probably unpleasant ones — but that's about all they had. Von Hoff gave them just four hits and no runs before being lifted for a pinch hitter in the bottom of the eighth.

However, he didn't get the victory. But Houston did, 2-1 in 12 innings, and that's a story in itself. The Astros had lost their 10 previous games by scoring a total of 25 runs while their pitchers gave up 70 and completed just one game.

In other National League games, St. Louis beat the Chicago Cubs 6-4, Philadelphia swept the New York Mets 3-2 in 12 innings and 7-5, San Francisco topped Atlanta 4-1 and Cincinnati edged Pittsburgh 2-1.

Baltimore nipped the New York Yankees 11-10 in 13 innings, Cleveland blanked Washington 3, Boston whipped Detroit 4-0, the Chicago White Sox took Kansas City 4-2 before losing by a similar score and Minnesota beat California 4-0 in the American League.

"I thought I could go another inning or two," said Von Hoff who was 4-2 with Amarillo, "but Grady (Manager Grady Hatton) made the right move."

The move was to pinch hit Julio Gotay for Von Hoff with one on and two out in the eighth. Gotay walked and Sonny Jackson singled to load the bases, but Claude Osteen got Joe Morgan to foul out.

Larry Sherry then held the Dodgers until the 11th when Tom Dukes, brought up Monday from Oklahoma City of the Pacific Coast League, took over.

The Dodgers broke through against Dukes when Jim LeFebvre singled home Nate Oliver. However, the Astros came right back in the bottom of the 11th. Bob Aspromonte singled off reliever Phil Regan, scoring Rusty Staub.

Houston then won it in the 12th when Morgan singled, and, with two out, rookie Doug Rader doubled him home.

A five-run sixth inning, highlighted by Julian Javier's two-run triple keyed St. Louis to its victory over Chicago as the Cardinals opened up a 10½-game lead over Atlanta and Cincinnati which are tied for second place. The Cubs dropped to fifth, 11 games back.

Bill White's leadoff homer in the 12th gave Philadelphia its first game victory. John Callison sparked the nightcap triumph by driving in three runs with a homer and double.

The Phillies pulled off the sixth triple play in the majors this season, three in each league, in the second inning of the nightcap.

BY MURRAY OLDERMAN

NFL: ---Baltimore Colts

GENERAL SUMMARY—It's a club that even coach Don Shula says he likes. The backlog of oldsters—seven remnants of the '58 world champs—is eased by a steady influx of young kids, including one of the best rookie contingents in Colt history. Should be definite contender.

OFFENSE

PASSING—John Unitas saves his arm in practice much as possible, in deference to his 12 years in game, but hopefully is over last year's shoulder pains. He's still the key to the Colts. And they like the looks of the taxi squad, Jim Ward, as eventual successor. Rating—A—

RECEIVING—So many, Shula doesn't know what to do with all of them. Besides usual array of Raymond Berry, Jimmy Orr wide, John Mackey (All-Pro) in tight, Willie Richardson is pressing Orr, rookie Ray Perkins looks great behind Berry and older Lenny Moore has joined the Orr-Richardson entente. Rating—A—

RUNNING—Solid, but definitely unspectacular. Shula's finally promised to make decision between Jerry Hill, Tony Loric at full, Tom Matte's taken over at halfback with top draftie Jim Delwiler in reserve. Also ex-defender Jim Welch. And Moore could still move inside. Rating—B

LINE—The Achilles' heel, if there is one. Jim Parker must make comeback at right tackle; Glenn Ressler must show he can be a regular guard—or there's trouble. Steady guys are center Dick Szymanski, tackle Bob Vogel, with Dan Sullivan ever the hustler. Rating—B—

KICKING—For distance, no one surpasses Lou Michaels. And in David Lee, Colts think they also have longest punter in football.

DEFENSE

LINE—Bubba Smith, top college pick, will do more than push veteran tackle Billy Ray Smith. He'll also play and could be another Big Daddy. There's no more agile inside man than Fred Miller. Vets Michaels, Ordell Brasse are still healthy for flanks, with help from Andy Stynchula, Roy Hilton. Rating—B+

LINEBACKERS—Good competitive situation here, too, with Bill Curry, ex-Packer, battling holdover Dennis Gauthier for vital middle post. Mike Curtis, Don Shinnick stay fixed on corners, with only rookies (Leon Ward, Ron Porter) to help unless there's a trade. A little thin. Rating—B—

LINE—The loss, through chronic shoulder injury, of Alvin Raymond would have hurt a lot more if rookie Rick Volk weren't available for free safety. Vets Bobby Boyd, Lea Lyles have no challenge on corners and Jerry Logan's a fine strong side safety. Couple of rookies (Bob Wade, Carl Stukes) have also impressed. Rating—B+

SUMMARY—The idea that Colts are a one-man team (Unitas) doesn't really pertain, but there is a certain gamble inherent in having untied Jim Ward is the only backup quarterback. The defense is solid, the attack will emphasize short jolts, a lot of passing as usual. PREDICTION—First in Coastal division.

Vietnamese Candidates Meet People

By BARRY KRAMER
BIEN HOA, Vietnam (AP) — South Vietnam's civilian presidential candidates finally met with the people today—10 days late.

With the month-long campaign period almost half over, the civilian candidates went to Bien Hoa, 15 miles northeast of Saigon, to give 15-minute speeches from a common platform.

Scheduled to start a 22-stop tour of the provinces Aug. 6, the candidates had called off the tour in Quang Tri, the first stop, when they were angered by a transportation mixup and what they felt were inadequate arrangements by the government.

After several days of arguing among themselves and hurling charges of election sabotage against the government, they decided to resume the trips, but with only 11 stops outside Saigon.

A crowd estimated at 1,000 turned out to hear the 2½ hours of speeches in Bien Hoa but in a light rain, dwindled down to fewer than 500 by the end.

The military ticket of Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu for president and Premier Nguyen Cao Ky for vice president was absent, as it was on the trip to Quang Tri.

A local representative spoke for the Thieu-Ky ticket at Bien Hoa.

The candidates spoke from a small stage, decorated with flags, in the yard of a girls' elementary school. Most of the crowd were civil servants and militarymen.

Lt. Col. Tran Van Hai, Bien Hoa Province chief, said he had been informed only Tuesday afternoon that the candidates were coming. He said the crowd was small—there are 60,000 registered voters in Bien Hoa City and 170,000 in the province—because there was not enough time to spread the word and because it was the middle of the week and most people were working.

He said loudspeaker trucks of the government information ministry had gone around announcing the campaign rally. Information Ministry workers passed out campaign literature of all the candidates at the rally.

Israel Under Attack of the SNCC

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee's charge that Jews are committing atrocities against Arabs has brought censure of the "Black Power" group from Jewish and civil rights leaders.

"Israel is and always has been the tool and foothold for American and British exploitation in the Middle East and Africa," said Ralph Featherstone, SNCC program director.

Featherstone, Executive Secretary Stanley Wise and Miss Ethel Minoch held a news conference Tuesday to expand on a SNCC newsletter which charged that Zionists conquered Arab lands through terror, force and massacres. The newsletter also charged that the Israelis destroyed more than 30 Arab villages before and after they took control of Palestine.

Donald Stone, head of SNCC in Atlanta, said the group is not opposed to Zionism, but that the public should be "aware of these situations in the Middle East."

Reaction to SNCC's statements came quickly from several sources.

Whitney Young, executive director of the National Urban League, a Negro group, said in New York that SNCC's "divorce from reality is best illustrated by the resemblance of their comments to those of the American Nazi party on this question."

In a joint statement A. Philip Randolph, vice president of the AFL-CIO and president of the Sleeping Car Porters, and Bayard Rustin, executive director of the A. Philip Randolph Institute, said SNCC anti-Israeli pronouncements reflect "a complete divorce from the opinions and aspirations of American Negroes."

The Negro leaders said SNCC apparently "has formed an unconscious alliance with right-wing anti-Semites and extremists, while consciously trying to undermine liberal forces in this country."

"A statement so filled with anti-Semitic venom," they con-

Publisher Makes a Fortune Just by Being Controversial Figure

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — In a time when most people live by the motto "Play It Safe," publisher Lyle Stuart is making a fortune out of being controversial.

"I'm iconoclastic—I get angry about things," said Stuart, a plump mild-mannered man of 44 who feels an inborn need to battle all forms of what he regards as authoritarianism.

"The one thing we have that other publishers lack is courage—or iconoclasm. We try to concentrate on books that challenge the taboos, the morals, and the economic and political structure."

By seeking out the kind of books that other publishers avoid, Stuart said that his firm—founded only 11 years ago with $8,000—now grosses nearly $1.5 million annually, nets about $250,000. Recently, he said he turned down a $2-million offer for it.

Among the 120 volumes he has printed are 11 sex guides—"I only read the first one myself"—the speeches of Fidel Castro, books on flying saucers, books critical of America's foreign policy.

His latest twitting of the establishment is "Inside the FBI," written by a former agent for J. Edgar Hoover who retired to practice law.

"I'm thinking of having it turned into a Broadway musical," said Stuart.

"I don't believe I'll have any trouble finding backers. When you're a winner, people with money knock on your door, wanting to be partners."

Upcoming on his publishing list are "The Rich and the Super Rich," by sociologist Ferdinand Lundberg, and an expose-type book on the U.S. Internal Revenue Service, "Spy Government," which the publisher complementarily described as "dynamite."

Homecoming

Homecoming was held in the McCaskill Community recently with two hundred-fifty people attending, from the following places: New York, Chicago and Maywood Ill., St. Louis and Kinloch Mo., Pittsburgh, Pa., Flint, Mich., Little Rock, Pine Bluff, Earle, Wynne, El Dorado, Prescott, Hope, Nashville, Okla., Texarkana, and Blevins, Arkansas and Austin Texas.

Rev. Ben F. Carter from pastor of Goff Chapel C.M.E. Church, who now lives in Missouri gave the blessing. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walker and the people of McCaskill would like to express their appreciation for the cooperation to everyone for making the event an enjoyable one.

Reunion

The family of Mr. Rollie McPherson had a reunion. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jarret Butler, Santa Monica; Mrs. Alma Yerger Los Angeles; Lawrence McPherson and daughter Betina, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Mrs. Catteryn McGough, San Diego; James A Yerger and daughter Sharyon Yvonne, Fort Wayne; George E. McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McPherson and daughters Sandra and Monica, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Wilton McPherson, Oscar McPherson and children, Judy Lorane, Windell Rae, Oscar Charles, Sherril of Fort Wayne, Ind.

continued, "can only be interpreted as an attempt to divert national attention away from the problems of jobs, housing and education, as well as an attempt to divide the growing alliance of labor, liberal religious and civil rights forces."

A spokesman for the Israeli government at the United Nations said SNCC was taking the Arab propaganda line. Irwin Schulman, southeastern director of the Anti-Defamation League, said atrocity photographs in the newsletter which purported to show massacres in the Gaza Strip in 1967 previously had been published in Arab propaganda publications.

Rep. Joel T. Broyhill, R-Va., suggested SNCC be required to register as a foreign propaganda medium because of the newsletter. Broyhill also said Featherstone had been quoted as saying some of the material in the newsletter was obtained from Arab embassies.

things," said Stuart, "and particularly injustice. I am not political, although I'm against all dictatorships. But I believe everything should be published. Good taste will then impose its will and the trash will be discarded by the public after the novelty wears off."

"Each year we publish a number of young writers we know we'll lose money on. But as an old frustrated novelist, I like to encourage the young ones."

Stuart came up the hard way in the bookworld. Left fatherless at the age of 6, he quit school at 17 because "I was tired of the family being on relief."

He clerked in a bookstore, was torpedoed twice as a merchant seaman. He worked for "Variety," wrote scripts for the Voice of America, turned out several ghosted biographies and an unsuccessful novel, then served as business manager for a chain of comic books before venturing into publishing on his own.

Controversy of course, sometimes invites reprisals. Some years ago Stuart was beaten up by three thugs, an incident which he feels was a reprisal. But he views it philosophically. After all, his income is worth an occasional blackeye.

"As President Truman once said," he remarked, "If you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen."

Guard Officer Tells of Riot Death Probe

By STEVE WILDSTROM
DETROIT (AP) — A National Guard warrant officer has told a court he was on duty at the height of pre-dawn sniping during the city's riots last month when he heard shots fired a block away near a motel annex and went to investigate.

Theodore J. Thomas testified Tuesday in Recorder's (Criminal) Court that he saw the bodies of two Negro youths lying in separate rooms in the annex. Thomas said he saw a white policeman—whom he identified as Patrolman Ronald August—take a Negro youth to one of the rooms where he had seen a body. Thomas told his story at the preliminary examination of August and fellow Detroit Patrolman Robert Paille. The officers are charged with first degree murder in the deaths of two of three Negro youths shot in the annex the morning of July 26.

Thomas said a uniformed man had given a shotgun to August. The guardsman said another man asked the patrolman: "Do you want to kill one?"

"I said, 'you can't kill them here—there are too many people around,'" Thomas said. "I heard a shot and then heard something fall to the ground," Thomas said. "I saw August come out of the room alone."

"I told the police this was strictly their business and left the building," Thomas said. Thomas was the main witness in the second day of the examination.

August is accused of shooting Fred Temple, 18, and Paille is charged with the murder of Aubrey Pollard, 19. The death of the third youth, Carl Cooper, 17, is still under investigation.

"When I entered the building, I saw people lined up against a wall," Thomas said. "I saw an officer strike a man with a pistol butt."

"Patrolman August was very refined—he didn't say anything."

Defense attorney Norman Lipplitt asked: "You mean he was not bullying people about?"

"Yes, sir," Thomas replied. Thomas said the uniformed men were taking youths into rooms to scare those still in the hall. "We were searching for weapons," he said. "We were concerned about someone having weapons. 'We wanted the people in the hall to believe someone in the room had been shot or beaten,'" he continued. "I thought it was better to create an illusion than to beat people in the hall."

Thomas said he went into a room with one Negro youth, told the youth to lie on the floor and fired a shot at the ceiling from his rifle. "One of the officers winked at me to show it was all right," he said.

Avery Weiswasser, the prosecuting attorney, asked: "Did you know whether anybody told Patrolman August it was only a game?"

"No, sir," Thomas replied. Charles Schlachter, senior detective for the Detroit Police Homicide Bureau, said all police officers who were at the motel the morning of the shootings were called to the Homicide Bureau to make reports about their activities at the motel.

Says Nikita Plotted Against Mao

By ROBERT LIU
TOKYO (AP) — Chairman Mao Tse-tung's leadership, continuing its attack on President Liu Shao-chi, claims that Liu and former Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev backed a plot to topple Mao in 1959.

The Maoist-controlled New China News Agency (NCNA) distributed Tuesday an 8-year-old document adopted by the Communist party's Central Committee accusing former Defense Minister Peng Teh-huai of plotting against Mao.

NCNA said Peng's followers at the time included Liu and other anti-party elements that tried to undermine the leadership.

The Peking People's Daily said today that "Peng was in league with the revisionist Khrushchev trying to topple the Chinese proletarian dictatorship." It did not tell how the then Soviet premier helped Peng.

The paper said the attack on Peng is "an important element to overthrow and completely discredit a handful of top party persons in authority headed by China's Khrushchev who are taking the capitalist road."

"China's Khrushchev" is the name Mao's leadership uses to refer to Liu. The paper refers to the former Soviet premier as Soviet Khrushchev.

After the Central Committee adopted the document in 1959, Chinese leaders announced Peng's dismissal and his replacement by Marshal Lin Biao, Mao's "closest comrade-in-arms" and his apparent successor as party chairman.

People's Daily said: "When Peng was ousted at the party Central Committee on Aug. 6, 1959, Soviet Khrushchev was so shameless as to praise Peng publicly as 'right and brave' and a 'best friend'."

Lin was appointed defense minister in September, 1959. Liu has been president since April, 1959.

NCNA's distribution of the 1959 party document alleging the plot against Mao followed an editorial attack on Liu by People's Daily and the party theoretical journal Red Flag.

The editorial listed "crimes" Liu is supposed to have committed in the party in the last 40 years, including that of trying to improve Red China's relations with the United States and Nationalist China.

Says Negroes Victims of Both Parties

WASHINGTON (AP)—California's first Negro state senator blames the two major political powers for this summer's riots and what he said was growing Negro advocacy of Black Power.

"Negroes are the victims of the two-party system," said Sen. Mervyn Dymally, a Democrat and national co-chairman of the recently organized National Conference of Negro Elected Officials.

"The Democrats take Negro votes for granted and they're afraid of the white backlash. The Republican party simply lacks the will to help wipe out the Negro ghettos," Dymally said in an interview.

As a result, he contended, elected Negro officials aren't able to show their voters rapid enough progress. "And hope gives way to hopelessness, and then to resentment and finally to Black Power and riots."

Dymally, 41, a Trinidad native and former schoolteacher elected to the California Senate last year, cited his own experiences as an example of what he called his party's failure to respond to Negro officeholders.

He noted he was elected by an 82 per cent majority while Republican Ronald Reagan was winning California's governorship by one million votes.

You'd think the Democratic party would want to preserve such solid support by consulting with and working through the elected representative. But I have virtually no contact with the national party," he said.

"And because they ignore me and other elected Negro officials, we simply can't produce the legislation and the programs that are needed. The voters know this so they turn to another method than politics—and

Conway Man Wants to Keep P.O. Building

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—George D. Curtis of Conway said Tuesday he had received replies from the White House and from the General Service Administration in answer to his criticism of the proposed destruction of the Conway Post Office.

Curtis, a veteran railway agent with Missouri Pacific, had written a letter to President Johnson expressing his opposition to the proposed plan. Curtis said he is not against progress but does oppose wasting tax funds.

"I just can't understand it," Curtis told newsmen. "After a little remodeling and redecoration, the present post office building would serve a useful purpose for several years to come."

The GSA plans to spend $750,000 for the new post office building. The agency said in its reply to Curtis that it always welcomes criticism. "We are glad you have the government's interest at heart," the GSA said, the week.

Rockefeller said the man he wants is studying his case against the commission and would probably make a decision Thursday. The governor said the man's name and other details of the hearing would be disclosed Friday.

The governor said the different members of the commission would likely be represented by a number of attorneys and it would probably take the man quite a while to put the case together.

Rockefeller has not levied any particular charges against any member of the commission but says he has evidence of wrongdoing by some commission members. The commissioners have refused to resign as the governor has requested.

Winrock to Host Flying Farmers

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The delegates to the International Flying Farmers' 22nd convention visited Winrock Farms Tuesday at the invitation of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

About 1,400 persons are attending the convention which opened here Monday. The teen affiliate of the IF F elected its officers Tuesday. Wayne Short, 19, Granton, Wis., was elected president; Victor Ruble, 17, Taloga, Okla., was elected vice president; Connie Holcomb, 17, Richmond, Ky., was elected secretary and Lorraine Short, 17, of Granton was elected treasurer. Sandy Capps, 16, of England, Ark., was elected farmettee.

Mrs. Sue Elmore, 23, and J. C. Stracener, 36, of Ponca City, Okla., were both in critical condition. Mrs. J. C. Stracener, 35, Brenda Stracener, 8, and Randy Stracener, 13, were in fair condition. Tommy Elmore, 4, was injured but his condition was undetermined.

Officers said Jones was driving an eastbound car which apparently hit a highway sign on U.S. 67, swerved across the eastbound lanes, crossed the median and smashed into the westbound car driven by Elmore.

Hippies to Meet for Big Love-In LONDON (AP) — The followers of flower power will take over one of England's historic mansions later this month for what is billed as the country's biggest "love-in." About 100,000 hippies are expected to converge on Woburn Abbey, home of the Duke of Bedford for a festival.

Commissioner Prohibited by Petition

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — Robert Mason, chairman of the Union County Election Commission, filed a petition in Second Division Chancery Court Tuesday prohibiting Mrs. Marguerite Turner of El Dorado from attending any meetings of the commission or serving as a member in any capacity until a hearing into her eligibility is held.

Mrs. Turner was selected by Republicans on the state Election Commission to fill a vacancy on the Union County Commission. Her appointment was approved by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

Mrs. Turner called a meeting of the commission for Tuesday but was prohibited from attending by the restraining order. Mason had said he would attend the meeting since Mrs. Turner did not have the authority to call any meetings.

Mrs. Turner said she called the meeting on the advice of Rockefeller. Secretary of State Kelly Bryant refused to approve Mrs. Turner's appointment last week because he said she did not receive the majority of the members of the state commission.

Each Republican nominee for a county commission vacancy was defeated 6-2 and each Democratic nominee was confirmed by the same margin.

2 Arkansans Are Killed in Texas

GARLAND, Tex. (AP)—Dean Elmore, 26, of England, Ark., and Bryan Elmore, his 1½-year-old son, were killed Tuesday in a head-on collision on the east edge of this Dallas suburb.

Authorities said seven other persons were injured including Robert Jones, 20, of Farmersville, Tex., who was alone in the second vehicle. He was in serious condition at Baylor Hospital.

Officers said Jones was driving an eastbound car which apparently hit a highway sign on U.S. 67, swerved across the eastbound lanes, crossed the median and smashed into the westbound car driven by Elmore.

Mrs. Sue Elmore, 23, and J. C. Stracener, 36, of Ponca City, Okla., were both in critical condition. Mrs. J. C. Stracener, 35, Brenda Stracener, 8, and Randy Stracener, 13, were in fair condition. Tommy Elmore, 4, was injured but his condition was undetermined.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Grave Harm Outweighs Any 'Benefit' of LSD Use

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Taking drugs for kicks is hazardous at best. Persons who will try anything once sometimes discover that once is too often. This is especially true of lysergic acid dimethylamide (LSD), a drug that may have some legitimate uses in the treatment of mental patients but is so unpredictable in its action that it should never be used except under medical supervision.

Reports indicate that this colorless, odorless, tasteless drug is being widely used by high school and college students. It is obtained on the black market in sugar cubes that sell for $2.50 to $5 each. One cube is good for an 8-to-10-hour "trip" to never-never land where all sensory stimuli are greatly intensified and one loses all sense of individuality or individual responsibility.

While under the influence of LSD a person's awareness becomes so expanded that he is supposed to be able to understand the mysteries of God and the universe, an understanding that seems to evaporate as the effect of the drug wears off and can be recaptured only on another "trip."

Although in some persons the hallucinations induced by the drug are described as pleasant, in others they are so terrifying as to lead to suicide. In some persons the effect of the drug wears off in a few hours but in others a mental breakdown that lasts several months may result.

One young man in a period of elation induced by the drug believed that he could fly, jumped out of a 10th story window and fell to his death. Another drove his car through a series of beautiful red lights that seemed to beckon him on. He killed the occupants of another car. Four college students held a highly intellectual conversation with the sun while looking "him" straight in the eye for several minutes. They were permanently blinded. A young experimenter tried LSD only once. He quit because it didn't turn him on. Two years later he suffered a severe mental breakdown. This might happen to anyone whether he had used LSD or not but a cause-and-effect relationship is strongly suggested by the fact that many others have had this same experience. The drug has been used long enough now that some of its long-range effects can be studied.

There is evidence that it can damage the chromosomes of the sperms in men and the ova in women and thus adversely affect future offspring.

Thomas E. Edison produced the first electrically operated "typewriter," consisting of a printing wheel, in 1872, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

NATURE'S ARTISTRY left an interesting landscape on Albert Schuetz's field of oats near Monroe, Wis., but the artwork was doubtless not appreciated by the farmer. Stalks flattened by wind and rain make harvesting slower, more difficult and costly.

PORTABLE RADIO leaves hands free when worn as a diamond-studded pendant with matching earrings as speakers. This prototype of utilitarian jewelry was shown at the Retail Jewellers of America trade show in New York recently. It was designed by Bulova.

WAR'S SCAVENGERS pick pieces of metal from a wrecked U.S. plane somewhere north of the 17th parallel, according to this photo from a Japanese source. North Vietnamese peasants reportedly make souvenirs from the wreckage and sell them.

LITTLE WORKHORSE, the new A-37 ground support plane built by Cessna Aircraft Company of Wichita, Kan., will begin duty in Vietnam this fall. It is a lightweight, twin-engine subsonic aircraft with two side-by-side pilot positions. The little plane has a take-off weight of 12,000 lbs., which includes bombs and rockets on eight wing pylons, and a nose-mounted 7.62mm "minigun" which can fire up to 6,000 rounds per minute. Flight range is over 1,400 miles, at speeds up to 480 m.p.h.

Tokyo Gasps for Breath

The largest city in the world is proud of its growing reputation as one of the top industrial giants, but it hangs its head and coughs slightly in reference to one of life's most natural acts—breathing. The air in Tokyo is consistently more poisonous than New York or Los Angeles, and has a marked effect on the health of its 11.1 million inhabitants.

A Tokyo city worker checks specimens coming from an industrial chimney. If too heavy in pollutants, the city can recommend improvements, but cannot enforce them.

Bull's charge sends the leader of the line and his second flying.

Success! The leader has the bull by the tail, then . . .

MOBILE GOLF may be a morale-builder for the wheel-chair-bound. The crank-operated apparatus was designed by a group of Stanford University engineering students, including Nicholas Lieggi and John Seever, standing, left to right, who watch as Yong-Taik Kim of Seoul, Korea, demonstrates the device.

City officials have set up smog-watching stations measuring the amount of pollution at all times. Above, a city office worker checks a graph which reports collective data from five smog checkpoints. Yet the city lacks the power and influence to enforce the stiff requirements needed to cut down the pollution problem significantly.

So heavy is the pollution that traffic policemen do two-hour stints at busy intersections, then quit to recuperate by breathing oxygen, as shown at left. Some coffee shops offer two-minute whiffs of pure oxygen to shoppers, for 25 cents.

MAN IN A HURRY is young Herb Alpert, 28, whose co-ownership of A & M Records as well as his popular Tijuana Brass playing group have made him one of the richest young men in show business, almost overnight. A & M Records grossed $30 million in 1966.

On he rolls like a locomotive, over top of some.

. . . let go, and run! Only safeguards against his horns are pads over the points, but Toro's charge is still formidable. Depending on his performance, the bull is either slaughtered or saved for breeding purposes after the fight.

FAKE FOG may help pilots improve their instrument procedures, particularly on landing approaches. Demonstrating is Paul Noxon of the Bendix Corporation's Navigation and Control Division, who is looking into a screen on which a fog pattern is projected with the aid of a strip of photographic film from the simulator mounted overhead. The film creates the illusion of foggy flying conditions during what is actually clear weather.

Instant Rainmaker

produces artificial precipitation for testing rain removal and de-icing equipment on airplanes. The rain maker is equipped with storage tanks and a 10-nozzled boom which emits a trail of moisture that ices a following plane, as seen at right and below. The system is used by the Air Force, and by the Cessna Aircraft Co., shown here with its own rain-maker.

Search on for Killer of 9 in Family

SHELL LAKE, Sask. (AP) — Royal Canadian Mounted Police set up roadblocks and turned bloodhounds loose in Saskatchewan farm country today as they pressed the search for the killer of nine members of a Canadian family.

Only a 4-year-old girl was spared in the James Peterson farm house near Shell Lake Tuesday. Bullets from a .22-caliber weapon killed Peterson, 47, his wife Evelyn, 42, and seven of their eight children.

Storekeeper Earl Dallan of Shell lake said the family was well liked and hadn't "an enemy in the world."

Coroner Dr. Calvin S. Lambert of Leoville said, "I don't think there was a suicide," because no weapon was found. Police Inspector Brian Sawyer said there was no apparent motive for the slayings.

"Mounties" set up roadblocks rounding bus with dogs, Sawyer said, and a search party of 250 persons was "ready to go."

The massacre was discovered by W.J. Lange, a neighbor of the Petersons, when Lange came to the one-story farmhouse to seek help with his hay. Lange found 4-year-old Phyllis unharmed in bed with

What the public presents in the Gazette's editorial Sunday is the blatant attempt to brand everyone who disagrees with the newspaper's philosophy as a beast.

You do not make war on children—and the Gazette overstepped the decency line in so charging Senator McClellan.

What we have here is simply a basic disagreement over how to handle America's mounting problem of hatred and disorder in the big cities. The Government and the Arkansas Gazette have been advocating merely spending money to clear up the ills of the slums—and Time seems to be writing it off as a bad job.

The non-political evangelist Billy Graham summed it up in his "Hour of Decision" radio broadcast last Sunday when he said that the wholly materialistic approach to the social problem of the slums was a failure. He said every federal financial program had been tried in Detroit—and the result was total disaster.

Graham observed that something had to happen in the hearts of men—something more than money—before peace returns to America.

But I don't believe it is possible to change men's hearts while federal aid continues to encourage them to stay cooped up in the slums. We have always had slums—but never revolution, until stupid federal programs made revolution inevitable.

The whole country—particularly the South—had a hand in transforming a once-happy people into the alien and unhappy people of the big city slums. Therefore all of us have an obligation to relocate them once more, in an environment which will be more favorable to happiness and peace.

No honest American objects to spending public money to help the downtrodden—if it really helps them. But public policy up to this moment is a demonstrated, and dangerous, failure.

A resettlement program taking slum dwellers out of the cities might be costlier—but anything is better than what we have and what the Arkansas Gazette continues to advocate.

Prospects Seem Bright for House Approval of Social Security Hike

By EDMOND LEBRETON
WASHINGTON (AP) — The House turns attention from income taxes to boosted Social Security benefits and taxes asked by President Johnson, with prospects appearing bright for passage.

Scheduled to open today was debate on a bill that would raise the Social Security benefits of the nation's 22 million present recipients and of all future recipients.

The measure not only would give a 12½ percent or greater raise to all pensioners but would make dozens of other changes in the various programs provided for in the Social Security Act.

It also would hike the system's taxable base from $6,600 to $7,600—meaning a Social Security tax boost of $44 a year next year for anyone making as much as $7,600.

One of the most controversial of the proposed changes would establish new, stricter rules of eligibility for medicare programs such as New York State's.

These are federally-aided state programs of health services for persons not indigent,

Hempstead County Extension Homemakers members prepare to take one of Hempstead's County's large watermelons Wednesday to the meeting of the Arkansas Extension Homemakers Council to be held in Little Rock August 16-18. The watermelon will be given as a door prize to a homemaker or guest from one of all 75 Arkansas counties represented.

Kroger Sued for $1,000 in Contest

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A suit alleging that a Little Rock woman won $1,000 in a game sponsored by the Kroger Co. and was then refused payment was filed Tuesday by Julius C. Achione.

Achione is the attorney for Mrs. Martha Ellen Ross. The suit contends that Mrs. Ross held a winning hand—the ace, king, queen, jack and ten of spades in a row on a master card—in a game called "Deck O' Money."

The suit alleges that a Kroger official accused Mrs. Ross of trying to use a king of clubs in place of the king of spades and that the official refused to pay the $1,000. Kroger stores issue the cards and suits.

but considered unable to handle all their medical expenses.

Some states have broadened the financial standards for eligibility enough to take in large proportions of their population. The medicare program is not connected with medicare.

Other controversial amendments would require states to put more emphasis on job training and welfare opportunities in their federally-aided welfare programs.

There appeared to be little opposition, however, to the sections of the bill providing more money for beneficiaries of the basic programs for the aged, widows and dependent children.

The new scales would mean, for example, that the typical retired couple now receiving a little more than $130 a month would receive about $150. The minimum payment would go up from $40 to $50 a month.

Under the procedures laid down Monday by the Rules Committee, House members will have no opportunity to amend the measure, but only to pass or defeat it. It appeared likely to be passed intact in the House, but to face strenuous Senate efforts to revise it.

Holt, Manager Hope Chamber of Commerce. Delegates wear name tags identifying county and publicizing watermelons.

"Extension Homemakers Search for Knowledge" will be theme of the state meet. Exhibits and special program features will depict new developments in Family Living.

Mrs. Graham will participate in the program and preside over district meeting at Southwest District Director. Mrs. McMurtrey is attending as president of the Hempstead County Extension Homemakers Council, sponsored by the county council.

Hope Man One of Two Killed in Laos Crash

Earl Bruce Jr., 21, son of Mrs. Jessie Page Bruce of Hope, was killed Friday when an Air Asia American, Inc. helicopter he was riding crashed and burned on a high jungle cliff in Laos during a heavy monsoon rain.

Capt. J. Cooney of Massachusetts, the helicopter's pilot and the only other person aboard, also was killed, according to H. H. Dawson, an AAA representative of Washington, D.C. Bruce was the craft's crew chief and flight mechanic.

Air Asia American is a civilian operation under contract to the United States government in Southeast Asia. The company dispenses food and agriculture supplies throughout Laos for the (AID). The helicopter was on a mission when it crashed.

Dawson said that when the helicopter did not return from its mission, another was sent to search for it. The burned wreckage was discovered and a crew member was dropped at the site. Dawson said it would take four or five days for a ground crew to reach the crash area because of the dense undergrowth.

Bruce is also survived by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Page of Texas.

Officers See Victory in Vietnam Only by Intensified Bombing

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's Vietnam critics and backers see in testimony by the U.S. Pacific commander the emergence of a new administration position that the conflict can be won only through heavier bombing of the North.

Critics attacked what they viewed as a policy shift ending hopes for a negotiated settlement, while backers called it more likely to make North Vietnam sue for peace.

Johnson remained publicly uncommitted on Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp's contention the ground war in the South is defensive in nature and on the argument that heavier bombing offers the best chance of getting North Vietnam to sue for peace.

But the release of testimony by Sharp that the war must be won by air attacks on enemy supply and infiltration targets convinced many senators that his views had full White House approval.

Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., made public Tuesday testimony taken in a closed session of his Senate preparedness subcommittee Aug. 9 in which the admiral said:

"We must continue to use operations in the North. They are the offensive element of our strategy. No war is ever brought to a successful conclusion by defensive action alone."

Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said release of Sharp's full testimony by the Pentagon after the subcommittee had rejected a previous heavily-censored version indicated the administration is taking the position the war can be ended only by bombing the North.

"This evidently means more and bigger bombings, precluding any possibility of a full which might invite any offer for negotiations," Fulbright said.

In the House, Rep. Olin E. Teague, D-Tex., said Fulbright should apologize for his previous declaration that bombings near Hanoi were "stupid" and invited Chinese intervention.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., another severe critic of Johnson's policies, said in an interview: "The Pentagon is taking over foreign policy."

"We are near a military takeover," he said. "Despite the charades of democracy with which they clothe it, a military takeover is not impossible in this country."

Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., long-time critic of Johnson's handling of the war, said he thinks the bombings have not been effective. He added: "I don't see any way we can win this war."

Listings of real estate agents having available rental or saleable property and house movers will be maintained for the consideration and use of those who must necessarily relocate. The Highway Department's representative will contact each affected owner.

If needed, relocation advisory assistance will be given by this representative so that displaced persons will be accommodated as little as possible.

Appraisals of properties needed for this construction project are in progress and are almost complete. The State plans to advertise for construction bids as soon as the property purchases can be completed.

Sharp Fight Leaves 98 Enemy Dead

By GEORGE ESPEK

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese troops, supported by U.S. air and ground forces, reported today killing 98 Communist soldiers in two sharp clashes, one in the Mekong delta and one 270 miles north of Saigon.

One U.S. soldier was killed and the Vietnamese suffered light casualties, a military spokesman said.

Meanwhile, Communist booby traps killed eight Marines and wounded 10 south of Da Nang Tuesday and three terrorist attacks were reported. One wounded 10 American civilian workers and another wounded four U.S. servicemen.

Military officials have predicted a sharp rise in Viet Cong terrorism in the next few weeks, aimed at disrupting South Vietnam's presidential election Sept. 3.

In the air war, as Air Force pilots concentrated again on truck convoys, the Air Force issued a report that a total of 541 enemy trucks have been destroyed or damaged in the first 15 days of August, surpassing the total of 532 for the entire month of July.

Heavy overcasts limited Tuesday's air strikes to targets in the panhandle region running from south of Hanoi to the 17th parallel that separates North and South Vietnam. Targets in the 161 missions included the truck convoys, military storage areas, a thermal power plant and enemy boats.

Ground fighting broke out in the delta 90 miles southwest of Saigon today just after a battalion force of South Vietnamese infantry units, rangers, militiamen and armored personnel carriers kicked off a search operation. A South Vietnamese military spokesman said one government infantry battalion and troops in armored carriers ran up against what was identified as the Viet Cong 309th Mobile Battalion—perhaps 300 to 400 men.

The battle raged throughout the day, and South Vietnamese troops reported they left 33 Viet Cong dead on the battlefield, and captured seven of the enemy. Five enemy weapons were reported captured, including two 60 millimeter mortars. Government casualties were described as "extremely light."
